Volume 8, Tome I: Kierkegaard's International Reception – Northern and Western Europe

Edited by Jon Stewart, Søren Kierkegaard Research Centre, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Kierkegaard Research: Sources, Reception and Resources

Tome I covers the reception of Kierkegaard in Northern and Western Europe. The articles on Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and Iceland can be said to trace Kierkegaard's influence in its more or less native Nordic Protestant context. Since the authors in these countries (with the exception of Finland) were not dependent on translations or other intermediaries, this represents the earliest tradition of Kierkegaard reception. The early German translations of his works opened the door for the next phase of the reception which expanded beyond the borders of the Nordic countries. The articles in the section on Western Europe trace his influence in Great Britain, the Netherlands and Flanders, Germany and Austria, and France. All of these countries and linguistic groups have their own extensive tradition of Kierkegaard reception.

Contents: Preface; PART I NORTHERN EUROPE: Denmark: The permanent reception – 150 years of reading Kierkegaard, Steen Tullberg; Norway: 'You have no truth on board!'
